

Elizabeth I revision.

You need to choose AT LEAST ONE task from EACH column. This will make sure that you have done some revision on each of the 3 units. You can of course choose to do more - eg doing something from the factual revision row and then doing the exam question practice after to test using that knowledge.

	Unit 1: Queen, Government and Religion 1558-69	Unit 2: Challenges to Elizabeth from home and abroad 1569-88	Unit 3: Elizabethan Society
Option 1: Choose this option if you think you need to revise basic facts.	Make a set of revision cards. Put these words/phrases on the front and on the back, write down 2/3 key points about each one. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Privy Council</li> <li>2. Parliament</li> <li>3. Royal Prerogative</li> <li>4. Local Government</li> <li>5. William Cecil</li> <li>6. Elizabeth's legitimacy</li> <li>7. Elizabeth's finances</li> <li>8. Middle Way</li> <li>9. Act of Supremacy</li> <li>10. Act of Uniformity</li> <li>11. Vestments Controversy</li> <li>12. Crucifix Controversy</li> <li>13. Catholic Recusants</li> <li>14. Threat from France and Scotland</li> </ol>	Write down each of these statements and then for each statement write down one/two pieces of evidence that backs it up. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. The Revolt of the Northern Earls had religious causes.</li> <li>2. The Revolt of the Northern Earls had some non-religious causes.</li> <li>3. The Revolt of the Northern earls did not really threaten Elizabeth.</li> <li>4. The Ridolfi plot was a threat to Elizabeth.</li> <li>5. The Throckmorton plot led to an act that made it easier to trap MQS.</li> <li>6. The Babington Plot led to MQS execution.</li> <li>7. Relations between Spain and Elizabeth got worse because of events in the Netherlands.</li> <li>8. Relations between Spain and Elizabeth got worse because of Elizabeth's actions.</li> </ol>	Write down these statements and say whether each one is True or False. If it is false, change the statement to make it true/say why it is false. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Both rich and poor people went to watch cock fighting.</li> <li>2. Tennis was played on an outdoor grass court.</li> <li>3. A popular sport with poorer people was bowls.</li> <li>4. Non-religious plays and rude comedies became popular in theatres like the Rose in London.</li> <li>5. Many Grammar schools were set up to educate bright boys from well-off families in towns.</li> <li>6. The literacy rates for both girls and boys increased from 10% at the start of the reign to 30% by the end.</li> <li>7. At the start of Elizabeth's reign, the idle poor were whipped or branded.</li> <li>8. The 1572 Vagabonds Act imprisoned vagrants if they were caught for a third time.</li> <li>9. The 1576 Poor Relief Act aimed to help the able bodied poor find work by giving them wool and raw materials to make things to sell.</li> <li>10. Damage to the supply ship The Tiger meant colonists in Virginia did not have enough food.</li> <li>11. The colony on Roanoke got on well with Chief Wingina.</li> </ol>

Option 2: Choose this option if you have a reasonable grasp of the main facts and want to start using/analysing this knowledge - which will also help extend this knowledge and get you thinking more deeply.	Make a list of the problems that faced Elizabeth at the start of her reign. Put these problems in order from the biggest problem to the least dangerous problem. Justify the 3 you have put at the top - why were they the biggest problems?	Put these headings (MQS, Walsingham, Catholic Nobles in England, Spain, France, The Pope, Revolt of the Northern Earls, plots, Spanish Armada) on a big piece of paper. Then draw arrows between any of the headings that link and explain how they are linked.	Draw 3 Venn diagrams. Use them to compare sport, music and dance and education for the different classes of people in England.
Option 3: Choose this option if you have a reasonable grasp of the subject knowledge and want to practise tackling the sorts of questions you'll face in the exam, but in a way that will allow you to use your notes to continue to develop your knowledge.	Below are 3 reasons (the point) why the possible catholic threat to Elizabeth did not develop at the start of her reign. For each reason, write down the evidence you would give (evidence) and how this evidence meant there was little threat (explain). Reason 1: the attitude/actions of the Catholic clergy in England. Reason 2: what happened in Scotland. Reason 3: The Pope's reaction	Write an explanation of why the Armada failed. Use all the following words in your explanation: crescent formation, Parma, Calais, fireships, storm, Scotland, cannonballs, manoeuvrability, Gravelines and tactics.	Draw out/get a copy of the grid below and use it to explain why there was an increase in poverty and vagabondage in Elizabethan England. Explain why there was an increase in poverty and vagabondage in Elizabethan England <table border="1" data-bbox="1326 842 2110 1295"> <thead> <tr> <th>Name (point)</th> <th>Population growth</th> <th>Problems in the cloth/wool industry</th> <th>Inflation</th> <th>Changes in farming</th> <th>The closure (dissolution) of the monasteries</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>Describe (evidence)</td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> <tr> <td>Explain how led to...</td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> <td></td> </tr> </tbody> </table>	Name (point)	Population growth	Problems in the cloth/wool industry	Inflation	Changes in farming	The closure (dissolution) of the monasteries	Describe (evidence)						Explain how led to...
